FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

September 17, 2009

Contact: Meg McSweeney
(215) 801-8876
mcsweeney@dlar.org

Exhibit of Rare Maps at the David Library

(Special Events / Calendar Listing: Exhibits/Museum/Library)

Washington Crossing, PA -- The David Library of the American Revolution, a special library dedicated to the study of American History in the Revolutionary Era, will present an exhibit of original North American maps from an outstanding private collection. "Early Maps of America: 16th to 18th Century" will be on exhibit in the Rose Gallery at the David Library from September 25 to October 13. The exhibit will preview on Sunday, September 25 from 1 pm to 3 pm. An opening reception will be held on Tuesday, September 27 at 6 pm, followed at 7:30 by a lecture on the exhibit by Dr. Daniel Trachtenberg of Washington Crossing, a map expert and collector. The exhibit will be open for public viewing on Saturday, October 1 from 1 pm to 5 pm, Thursday, October 13 from 6PM to 7:30, and by appointment. Appointments to see the exhibit at times other than those listed above can be made by calling (215) 493-2233 ext. 100.

The David Library is located at 1201 River Road, Washington Crossing. 1201 River Road (Rt. 32), Washington Crossing, 1.3 miles north of Washington Crossing Historic Park. The exhibit is admission free.

###